

STOP DEPORTATION - STOP DEPORTATION - STOP DEPORTATION

On Monday, June 8th 2009 an airplane of Air Berlin is supposed to leave Schönefeld airport for Vietnam. On Board will be more than 100 people on a deportation flight chartered by the German federal police. The deportees are from Germany and Poland. The deportation will be coordinated by FRONTEX, Europe's new border security agency.

Let us stop this deportation!!

At 3:15 p.m. a plane will leave Tegel airport to transfer some of the deportees to Schönefeld. At 5:00 pm the deportation plane is supposed to leave Schönefeld for Hanoi.

Prepare your own activities! Be a nuisance to usual airport proceedings!

Parallel to this activities, the refugee councils of Berlin and Brandenburg have registered a protest meeting in front of Terminal A at airport Schönefeld starting at 3 p.m.

Until June 8th protest against the planned mass deportation can be directed to Air Berlin, public relations department:

phone: +49 (0)30/ 3434 1500 - Fax: +49 (0)30/ 3434 1509 abpresse@airberlin.com
Responsible Person for Media Contacts is Mrs Dädelow ddaedelow@airberlin.com

For new developments and information see <http://www.kub-berlin.org/>

STOP DEPORTATION - STOP DEPORTATION - STOP DEPORTATION

STOP DEPORTATION - STOP DEPORTATION - STOP DEPORTATION

On Monday, June 8th 2009 an airplane of Air Berlin is supposed to leave Schönefeld airport for Vietnam. On Board will be more than 100 people on a deportation flight chartered by the German federal police. The deportees are from Germany and Poland. The deportation will be coordinated by FRONTEX, Europe's new border security agency.

Let us stop this deportation!!

At 3:15 p.m. a plane will leave Tegel airport to transfer some of the deportees to Schönefeld. At 5:00 pm the deportation plane is supposed to leave Schönefeld for Hanoi.

Prepare your own activities! Be a nuisance to usual airport proceedings!

Parallel to this activities, the refugee councils of Berlin and Brandenburg have registered a protest meeting in front of Terminal A at airport Schönefeld starting at 3 p.m.

Until June 8th protest against the planned mass deportation can be directed to Air Berlin, public relations department:

phone: +49 (0)30/ 3434 1500 - Fax: +49 (0)30/ 3434 1509 abpresse@airberlin.com
Responsible Person for Media Contacts is Mrs Dädelow ddaedelow@airberlin.com

For new developments and information see <http://www.kub-berlin.org/>

STOP DEPORTATION - STOP DEPORTATION - STOP DEPORTATION

STOP DEPORTATION - STOP DEPORTATION - STOP DEPORTATION

On Monday, June 8th 2009 an airplane of Air Berlin is supposed to leave Schönefeld airport for Vietnam. On Board will be more than 100 people on a deportation flight chartered by the German federal police. The deportees are from Germany and Poland. The deportation will be coordinated by FRONTEX, Europe's new border security agency.

Let us stop this deportation!!

At 3:15 p.m. a plane will leave Tegel airport to transfer some of the deportees to Schönefeld. At 5:00 pm the deportation plane is supposed to leave Schönefeld for Hanoi.

Prepare your own activities! Be a nuisance to usual airport proceedings!

Parallel to this activities, the refugee councils of Berlin and Brandenburg have registered a protest meeting in front of Terminal A at airport Schönefeld starting at 3 p.m.

Until June 8th protest against the planned mass deportation can be directed to Air Berlin, public relations department:

phone: +49 (0)30/ 3434 1500 - Fax: +49 (0)30/ 3434 1509 abpresse@airberlin.com
Responsible Person for Media Contacts is Mrs Dädelow ddaedelow@airberlin.com

For new developments and information see <http://www.kub-berlin.org/>

STOP DEPORTATION - STOP DEPORTATION - STOP DEPORTATION

STOP DEPORTATION - STOP DEPORTATION - STOP DEPORTATION

On Monday, June 8th 2009 an airplane of Air Berlin is supposed to leave Schönefeld airport for Vietnam. On Board will be more than 100 people on a deportation flight chartered by the German federal police. The deportees are from Germany and Poland. The deportation will be coordinated by FRONTEX, Europe's new border security agency.

Let us stop this deportation!!

At 3:15 p.m. a plane will leave Tegel airport to transfer some of the deportees to Schönefeld. At 5:00 pm the deportation plane is supposed to leave Schönefeld for Hanoi.

Prepare your own activities! Be a nuisance to usual airport proceedings!

Parallel to this activities, the refugee councils of Berlin and Brandenburg have registered a protest meeting in front of Terminal A at airport Schönefeld starting at 3 p.m.

Until June 8th protest against the planned mass deportation can be directed to Air Berlin, public relations department:

phone: +49 (0)30/ 3434 1500 - Fax: +49 (0)30/ 3434 1509 abpresse@airberlin.com
Responsible Person for Media Contacts is Mrs Dädelow ddaedelow@airberlin.com

For new developments and information see <http://www.kub-berlin.org/>

STOP DEPORTATION - STOP DEPORTATION - STOP DEPORTATION